At Last! Shields You Can Sew Through the Centre!

KLEINERT'S Nu-e-ra Dress Shields have a special binding under the centre fold so that the middle of the shield can be sewed directly to the armhole without danger of perforating the rubber. Tack the binding around the armhole and on the edge of each flap in no less than five places. Your shield is perfectly secured, free from wrinkles, thoroughly comfortable. As dainty and easily laundered as your finest lingerie. The name KLEINERT guarantees the service.

THEY'LL NONE OF THEM BE MISSED

Oh, I've got a little list, my friends, I've got a little list,
Of some people round this college that I'm sure won't be missed.
They plague us, and they bore us, and they make us very ill—
And they think they'll go on doing it—but I don't think they will!
Some day the whole sweet crowd of them is going to disappear,
And the reason why I will not state — but well — I won't be here!

There's the little group of girls who lounge outside Miss Meyer's door,
They never study but they chat, and crack fool jokes, and roar.
And though Miss Bishop chases them, each day they come for more,
Oh, I don't think they'd be missed, no, not at all!

There's the girl who's always talking of the hero of her dreams,
Of how tired she is each morning — goes to dances by the reams,
When your Last Hope has gone France-ward, and your nights you spend on themes,
Oh, I don't think she'd be missed, no, not at all!

There's the maid who's studied French for just one year and that is all,
But who passed with ease the Oral — is marked "P" upon the wall,
While you who've studied seven years have flunked it every Fall,
Oh, I don't think she'd be missed, no, not at all!

Then there's a class in Barnard's hall who thinks it owns the place,
Its number's Nineteen Twenty and it's pert in every case;
And the way it flaunts its victories is really a disgrace!
Oh, I don't think 'twould be missed, no, not at all!

And lastly but not leastly, there's a little group quite staid,
That is drawn from out the Faculty, and coolly here arrayed.
There's the Prof who in the classroom's very cordial to us all,
But who gives us the cold shoulder when he meets us in the hall.
There's the Prof who though he's charming, and clever in the extreme,
Who's been known to yawn disgracefully while reading someone's theme,
And the pretty young instructress with the merry eyes and curls
Who just waits to be surrounded by a crowd of crushy girls!

Some day the whole sweet crowd of them I state will disappear —
Whose fault 'twill be I shall not say — but well — I won't be here!

This club has recently been organized to encourage the interest in dancing as a form of dramatic art and to cooperate with other clubs of the college to this end. Its aim is for unified effort on the part of Seniors and Juniors in various forms of dancing and for the further development of original work.

The War has called us and we have responded. Barnard is doing her part in the big splendid work of War Relief. We have knitted, we have sewed, we have cooked—we have even sung for War Relief! The achievements of Red Cross Auxiliary No. 203 have been an important item in the work; you will find more about them on the opposite page. Some of the other accomplishments of the War Relief Committee have been:—One hundred and forty hours of clerical work for the University Committee on Women's War Work; two hundred hours of Campaigning for the Second Liberty Loan; twenty hours' work at local Exemption Board No. 231; one hundred hours' work at Hero Land; six boxes of knitted articles sent to Fort Hancock, Sandy Hook; seventeen Christmas boxes sent through the Y.M.C.A. to our soldiers in France; thirty-seven Christmas boxes sent to soldiers in the Army and Navy Ward of Bellevue Hospital; books, cigarettes and candy to the same ward; two Christmas boxes to soldiers at Camp Merritt; Christmas dinner for five sick soldiers; three comfort boxes sent to allied prisoners in foreign camps; three large bundles of clothing to the American Girls' Fund for the French.

Probably the greatest achievement of all was the thrilling, inspiring, reckless "contest in generosity"—the event of the fall semester, and second only to Greek Games in the excitement which it caused—our campaign for the Y.M.C.A. Student Friendship Fund. We were all bankrupt at the end of that week! Thanks to Dr. Braun, Isabelle Murtland and our speedy mascots, not forgetting the Dark Horse, we far exceeded our $5,000 goal. At the end of the campaign the figures were:

1919	1,662.60
1920	2,197.10
1921	922.00
Dark Horse	2,264.00
Total	$8,033.45

Over four hundred dollars additional has been collected for the Fund since that time.

AUXILIARY NO. 203
NEW YORK

AMERICAN RED CROSS
COUNTY CHAPTER

MILDRED BLOUT, '18 - - - - - - - - - - Chairman

Red Cross Auxiliary No. 203 started its work in real earnest on the first day of last October. For a few weeks Headquarters were located in one of the Zoology laboratories. During October, five thousand seven hundred and eighty surgical dressings and thirteen knitted garments were made. In November, after the work had been moved downstairs to the reception room, the production rose to seven thousand three hundred and ninety-seven dressings and one hundred and eighteen knitted garments. In December — a short college month — four thousand two hundred and fifty-seven dressings and one hundred and eighty-seven garments were turned out. In the ten-day period between the holidays and mid-years, one thousand nine hundred and twenty dressings, and one hundred and twenty-six garments were made. The total production of the Auxiliary for the fall semester was nineteen thousand three hundred and fifty-four surgical dressings and four hundred and forty-four knitted garments.

Besides these results from the workroom, the Auxiliary cooperated with the New York County Chapter in sending volunteers to the Red Cross exhibit at the Electrical Show, to the tea-room at Hero-Land, and to the Red Cross mass-meeting at the Hippodrome on December twelfth. Barnard also had charge of one booth during the Red Cross membership drive.

Nearly nine hundred dollars was expended by the Auxiliary during the fall term, for the necessary supplies—chiefly for wool and gauze. Practically all the wool in the four hundred and forty-four knitted garments was given out to the students, free. The amount of money in the treasury at the end of January was one hundred and thirty-five dollars and thirty-eight cents. The sources of financial support for the work have been numerous. About four hundred and twenty-one dollars and thirty-five cents was received in student pledges and contributions during the first four months. Three hundred dollars and seventy-one cents came in as the proceeds of the "Wigs and Cues" performance of "David Garrick" and several smaller War Relief benefits. The rest of the money was contributed by the classes, some of the clubs, generous alumnae, and other "friends in need."

Silver Bay Club

(The Silver Bay Club is an informal organization composed of all the girls in Barnard who have attended the Young Women's Christian Association Conferences at Silver Bay on Lake George.

The purpose in forming the club was not only to bring the Silver Bay girls together socially, but also to form a group who could effectively bring something of the conference back to college.)

The Rime of a Deluded Sophomore

"Oh, how I hate that gibbering crew
That led us all astray!
They told us 'twas a cinch to do,
And we would all get A.

"That drama course," they said in glee
"Why all you need is sense";
They lied. And lied again to me
About that course in English B.
All young and lightsome Freshmen, we,
Without intelligence.

For plays were here and plays were there
And plays were all around,
We read, and howled and roared and growled
Like noises in a swound.

We dabbled here, we dabbled there—
And cheerlessly we read.
And dates and plays were everywhere
Except inside our head.

But lo! the final quiz was here
And we did nothing know.
And to our boots, our hearts like lead
Did slow but surely go.

Oh! we had done a fearsome thing
And it would work us woe;
For we had quite forgot the plays
That we had ought to know.
And all the dates and notes we took,
Were melted like the snow.

Five times fifteen living girls
(I heard nor sigh nor groan)
With heavy thump, a lifeless lump,
They flunked it, one by one.

F's, F's—all F's, these were.
F's for them all but me.
Yea, I had passed from out that class
With a hard earnèd D.

Oh, D—thou art a gentle thing
Beloved from pole to pole!
To M. W. L. the praise be given,
She sent the gentle D from heaven
That slid into my soul.

Fare well—farewell. But now I tell
A moral here today,
She passeth well who knoweth well
Both note and date and play.

She passeth best who knoweth best
All plays both great and small;
For M. W. L. who teacheth us
She knows and asketh all."

Professor Teeza Bore

During this entire century there was a general progression of universal thot. In Europe grave dissensions rose over religious matters. The chief event in Germany was the Diet of Worms.

Say Dotty, this course is awfully tiresome

yes, even the floor is board!

Thought is divided into 2 partitions, A and B.

→ Say Dotty, do you know how to make ear-muffs? No - will you show me? Sure! I'm going to take some notes - He's looking at me. Don't trouble yourself, you've only been here once before this term and he thinks you're a visitor.

This thunder was forceful. He resembled Richard Coeur de Lion

Oh never pull a lion's tail to see how he will act.

'Tis most unkind and unrefined

And shows rude ways of fact.

time - Ch. 8. Fuiz.

Say Dotty, this is why I was late to class. Why? Because the Diet of Worms met a force. "Why Martin Luther was a heretic. Why? Because the Diet of Worms disagree with him."

I'm got the sweetest evening dress. It looks like this - tulle

orchids (pink)

rose buds

silver ribbon

Have you seen "Why Marry?" Perfectly, my dear. No. It's perfectly all right. Do you know this? → Do you translate the sentence in German for B-day? Yes

Say, I'll bet you "knew" he took his eyes off the table and said, "Table d'hôte."

This year the Barnard Athletic Association and Barnard athletics are forming an integral part of college activities. Heretofore, due to the fact that we have had to use the Teachers College gymnasium, we have to a certain extent been set apart from Barnard life. But now with the opening of our own gymnasium and with the earnest cooperation of the Physical Education Department, athletics are being brought closer to each student. Although we have lost our hockey field, we have gained many new sports. Some of them have not at yet been given recognition as interclass or varsity sports, merely because we are waiting to see the support given them by the classes. The sports played this year include basketball, baseball, swimming (varsity and class sports), tennis, indoor and outdoor (class sport), captain ball, water polo, and track sports (class sport).

Plaintive Poems

TO THE ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITTANICA

Upon your worth I stake my trust,
Brittanica, Brittanica,
But for your aid I'd bite the dust,
Brittanica, Brittanica,
You give me book reviews with ease,
My English bibliographies,
And strange old-world philosophies,
Brittanica, Brittanica.

Long be it e're your sun is set,
Brittanica, Brittanica,
The student's aid, the teacher's pet,
Brittanica, Brittanica,
Biographies you've taught to me,
Mart Luther's Life is short to me,
Because of you, work's naught to me,
Brittanica, Brittanica.

SONG OF YE GRIND

My teachers say I shouldn't fool—
I don't.
Nor waste the precious hours of school—
I don't.
To movie shows I must not go,
Nor yet to any Broadway show,
To vaudeville or circus, so
I don't.

In class they say I shouldn't knit—
I don't.
Nor in the back row talk and sit—
I don't.
They tell me I should hard work love,
My marks are B plus or above,
But do I have much fun, by Jove—
I don't!

A PLAINT

I wish that I lived in Brooks, I do; I wish that I lived in Brooks;
It's a terrible thing to go home one day,
To find that the maids have gone away,
And that you have to take their place sans pay
When you ought to be reading your books.

It's a very sad thing to hear Mother say, oh yes, it is sad but true,
"You must wash the dishes, don't stand and talk,
And take young brother out for a walk
Till we get some help, it won't pay to balk,
And dust up the parlor, too."

So I'm tired to death; yes, tired to death, and I'm sick of this job of the cook's,
For my homely trials are o'erwhelming me,
I'm a working woman from dawn till tea,
And my highest marks will be C or D,
Oh, I wish that I lived in Brooks!

The Rising of the Moon

By Lady Gregory

Presented in Brinckerhoff Theatre, April 27th and 28th, 1917

Cast of Characters

A ragged man	Gladys Cripps, '18
The Sergeant	Lucille Marsh, '20

Policeman B.	Vera Klopman, '19

Coached by Ray Levi Weiss, '15

The moon rose on a dark night and this was all we could see of the actors.

In the Spring of 1917, the country's call for volunteer workers deprived Barnard of many of her best actresses, and Wigs and Cues was obliged to depart from its usual policy of giving a whole evening's performance. "Green Stockings," after a week's rehearsal, was therefore abandoned for a shorter play.

Home Made Plays

Since the Fall of 1916, Barnard has seen a number of plays written and produced by Barnard undergraduates. Most of these were produced in the workshop conducted by the class in English 3, under Professor Baldwin, and some were repeated for the War Benefit performances. By the Spring of 1918 Wigs and Cues plans to give home made plays under her auspices, as part of the dramatic program of the year.

The following plays were given during 1916 and 1917:

"The Stranger Man" - - - - - - by Katherine Harrower, '17

"Cesare Borgia" - - - - - - by Hildegarde Dieehmann, '17

"The Cost of Living" - - - - - - by Cornelia Throop Geer, '17

"Know Ye By These Presents" - - - - - - by Edith Morgan, '17

"The Squealer" - - - - - - - - by Mary F. Barber, '18

"The Open Door" - - - - - - - by Isabel Greenbaum, '18

"Wolf" - - - - - - - - - - by Dorothy Graffe, '18

"The White Wolf" - - - - - - - - by Ruth Zagat, '18

"The Broken Chimney" - - - - - - by Marguerite Bernard, '19

"With the College Wits"

Miss Doty: "Now Miss Rosenthal, in consideration of the fact that your sister has scarlet fever, you must go right home. See, too, that you don't speak to a human being as you go out."

Edith R.: "It'll be perfectly all right for me to go in and speak to Professor Brewster, though, won't it?"

Freshman (looking at the "Posted" list): "I wonder what the word 'Provost' means."

Brilliant Junior: "Business, my child, business."

Miss Latham (to doting Mamma who has been bothering her for hours about "Daughter's" registration): "You don't care to register, do you?"

Mr. Grady (discussing marginal purchasing): "Well, Miss Tappan, what would you do if the price of soap went up?"

Vivian T.: "It wouldn't make any difference to me."

Professor Trent had his portrait painted with three rare volumes of De Foe on the table near him. When the picture was finished the artist asked for any criticisms. Professor Trent examined the painting closely and then: "That second volume is a little too thick."

PROFESSOR MONTAGUE'S OWN POEM

"Little Miss Muffet
Sat on a tuffet,
Studying Hume for exam;
She said, "I can't see,
If ideas are me,
Just where the rest of me am."

Profesor Boas: "Among the Chukchee Indians, if the children of females are females they are always brothers and sisters."

Edith Reid (looking for the Barnard History Class at the Museum of Art, to guard): "Could you tell me where the Barnard girls are?"

Guard: "No'm, I don't know where they're kept."

"UNFORTUNATE JUXTAPOSITIONS"

From English 1

"As my uncle approached he yelped louder and louder."

"The mother seized the child and with an offended look drew him on her lap."

"The cow trotted along with her thin legged calves."

"She had vermilion lips and was devouring a book."

"I took long walks with my dog and the red, almost angry, sunset."

SLIPS OF SIMKHOVITCH

"I made a bee hive for the door."

"She was a very good looking straw widow."

Earnest Worker: "What's the lesson in Ethics today, Edith?"

Edith Lowenstein: "Lord knows, I don't!"

Miss Rockwell announces that the following reference books are now ready for use:

Voices of the Night, Astronomy 1
The Inferno, Chemistry 5-6
Lives of the Hunted, English 1-2
The Glory of the Conquered, English B5-B6
Inland Voyage, Hygiene A

Greek Games Lyric—Sophomore Year

To Eos, the Eternal

By Beatrice Lamberton Becker, 1920

Against the dreadful panoply of stars
I stand and feel the dawn-wind in my face.
There is an ominous silence on the earth
And hushed attention far through starry space.
The brooding hills upheave their shadowy girth
As if to catch some faint portentous sound;
And now from the white shuddering stars that bound
Night's sinister domain in the wide East,
A sudden tremor passes swifty round
The glittering constellations' high array,
A signal of dismay . . .
Then suddenly I know the night has ceased.
The eastern hills are black against the grey,
And lo, across the waiting world I hear
Wistful and clear
The thin and silver trumpets of the day . . .

And thou art come, clad in thy radiance,
Shimmering Eos, and art momently
Striding in splendor with a bright advance
Along the mystic bastions of the dawn . . .

Yet as I call thy twilight eyes are gone,
Thy slender ankles glint on misty hills
Far in the muffled West. A waking bird
Flutes a soft note like an old poignant word
Over and over, and abruptly stills
His call. Soon now the lambent sun in glory
Will redly stare from the horizon's rim . . .
Eos, thou art so fleet and transitory,
Too fragile and mysterious and dim
To be immortal—and the gods are dead
And half forgotten, save in ancient story.
Hast thou too passed for many a year gone by,
And wert some delicate phantom in the sky?
A sudden splendor flashing down the night?

Nay, thou art more than goddess, more than light,
Thou the eternal, the miraculous!
Man still to thee lifts up his blinded head
And marvels at thy sudden call, thy white
Incredible feet upon the utmost shoals
Of troubled darkness. Yea, the gods are gone
That once had sovereignty of mortal souls . . .
Yet thou, the old and evanescent dawn
Shalt far outlive this wistful tribe of men,
And when the earth is free of them again
Still shalt thou herald to dim icy seas
A strange red sun like a remembered pain,
And through the infinite night
Still shout of brighter, lovelier dawns than these.
Naught is forever, save the birth of light.

By Marion Boyd Warren, 1919

Eos! The altar flame dies low.
Where stars have spent their blue-eyed wane,
High builded, first to sight thy glow,
The pillared silence of thy fane
Enshadowed waits.
Night's slipping grasp dissolves its shades
Of Death. Starlight unbidden, fades.
Over the gossamer purpled hills
Softly the mist that the nightfall wills
Sifts from thy gates.

Eos, the wounded poppies Night has wreathed
Fade lifelessly, and Sleep has stirred and waits
But thy awakening. Pale Phosphor breathed
The silent hymn of peace. Unbar thy gates!
Lift thou the ocean's purpled cloak away,
Lash thou with playing winds its whitening spray,
The opalled line of sea and heaven reclaim
With herald torch, thy pencilings of flame.

Eos, the wind is blowing cool.
Colorless stirring, whitened and wan
The light is born,
And clear as the gaze of startled fawn,
The blue of a summer sky-filled pool
Gives birth to morn.

Sunder Apollo's gates and fling them wide!
Pour forth thy flowered wealth that he may ride,
The Conqueror, through the arch of flaming sky.
Eos, Beloved of Mortal, while I cry,
The petaled rose that blossoms on thy way,
Blooms full, gleams rich, the golden heart of day.
From ivied gleaming pillars incense wings
The praise of newborn loveliness of things.

Scan this page and you will see
How useful Barnardites can be
How they spend vacation hours
Pulling weeds and growing flowers,
Driving horses, painting doors,
Haying, raking, doing chores.
Autumn calls them back to college,
There to tread the paths of knowledge;
Still they long to spend their days
In the rural country ways.
Grads and undergrads unite
In week-ends past description, quite.

Students Hall

After our waiting many days
Greatest of all surprises,
After a thousand small delays
The Students Building rises!
Oh, wide it is and broad and fat,
But red and wondrous fair—
Just what we have been aiming at,
So big and on the square.
November twelfth the college goes
To enter its new halls
The scent of plaster hits our nose
Enthusiasm palls.
They told us it was finished quite,
But as we climb the stair
Against the beams the hammers smite
We note the walls are bare.
The elevators please us most,
They're large with lots of space—
We wish they'd two big mirrors boast
So we could see our face.

We trip into the studies then,
The best our rival draws,
I guess Fate laughed out loudly when
She picked those Sophomores;
The gym is very fine to see,
Of air there is aplenty;
We hope the course will lengthened be,
Beginning Nineteen Twenty.
Friend Annie lends the lunchroom dash
Which huge is, truly fine;
Each day she dishes out the hash
To a long wavering line.
The Library's a lofty room,
Quite handsome as to looks,
One thing there casts a heavy gloom—
Those rows of reference books.

In times of woe the rest room's great
But oh, it's hard, hard, hard!
Before we e'er can to it go,
We have to sign a card.

Down in the depths the blue-green pool
Next greets our wondering eyes,
So clean it is, so clear and cool
'Tis quite the best surprise.
Upon the ground floor then Miss Boyd
Our roaming gaze now views,
She tells us in a friendly woid
To mind our P's and Q's,
And by her sits her faithful hound
Rags, with his mien so wise,
With silver hair; he makes no sound
Just looks with doggish eyes.
Oh, we could rave without abuse
From morning until night
About this hall; but what's the use?
This "H" is finished quite!

Odes to Olympus

The Brothers Philosophical,
The Brothers Philosophical,
I write of; there are two,
The pleasant Dr. Hollingworth,
The merry Montague.
The first one very honest is,
He'll never swear he's right,
He says "I think this thing is so,
I can't be sure, quite."
The second one's a famous wit,
But lateness is his crime.
We all were "tardy" marked, the day
He came to class on time.
But still they make a charming pair,
We like them much, we do,
The pleasant Dr. Hollingworth,
The merry Montague.

TO THE DEAN

Oh, V. C. G.! Oh, V. C. G.!
Hark to our plaint we beg of thee,
A poem we would write to thee,
A pæan of praise indite to thee —
But all we'd say is trite to thee,
Oh, V. C. G.! Oh, V. C. G.!

It really would be most absoyd,
If anyone had never hoyd,
Of our great Virginia Boyd.
All Barnard waits upon her woyd,
Without her life would be a voyd,
And college could not be enjoyd.
We'd be a mixed-up wandering hoyd,
Always in trouble or annoyd,
—Oh, leave us ne'er, Virginia Boyd!

There is a young instructor in Economics A,
His name is Mr. Grady, and oft we've heard him say —
"Er-yes, perhaps that view is true, but in the broad and large,
That attitude is of the mind and somewhat in the marg-
In of the corporation. But I didn't realize
That to give such information to young ladies was deemed wise.
Still, they give it to your brothers over in Columb-i-a,
And I know you Barnard maidens equal them in every way"—
And on he rambles in this wise which really is quite rare,
We'd like to tell you more of him — but truly, we don't dare!

Odes to Olympus

LYRIC TO "BILLY"

STROPHE

Who runs to help me when I flunk?
Why — Billy!
Who tells me that my themes are punk?
Why — Billy!
Who says "Young ladies, you may knit
When in my English class you sit,
I really do not mind a bit."
Why — Billy!

ANTISTROPHE

It was a bright day in October.
Slowly I approached the Provost's office,
To have my first conference with His August Highness.
I clutched the door-knob feverishly,
And entered.
Mr. Brewster yawned. (He always yawns when he sees me.)
"Be seated," he said.
I sat.
He picked up six of my closely typed themes
And opened his mouth to speak.
I waited for the jewels of wisdom to fall from his lips.
And then he said, "You use a typewriter."
I marveled at his discernment.

CATASTROPHE

Who scrawls on all my themes, "Rewrite"?
Why — Billy!
Who keeps me working day and night?
Why — Billy!
Who says, "Emotions you must quell,
Don't let your angry passions swell."
But who's the one best bet, pray tell?
Why — Billy!

DEAR DOCTOR C.

A very fine man is our dear Doctor C.
He tells us the story of fish and of flea,
But though he's polite —
And his manners delight,
Yet several terrible customs has he!

He lectures in words that have syllables 'steen.
We stupidly sit there and guess what they mean,
Like "homogeneity,"
With, for variety,
"Heterogeneous" thrown in between

He thinks, too, his course is a snap, and we hear
That he's striving to make it more fatal each year,
For those who're to come,
Oh, the outlook is glum,
And for their young sanity greatly we fear!

But if now his words had but syllables three,
On one thing I'm sure we all should agree,
That never, oh never,
Was human so clever,
So liked, so admired as famed Doctor C.

Of the worst and wildest crimes
To become the perpetrators
Of these sayings, drawings, rhymes.

To 1917

Toward realms of Yesterday you glide
On Time's relentless flow,
And Alma Mater softly weeps
— To see you go.

True guide you've been, and truer friend
And as you past us sail,
We greet you, Sisters, fondly proud —
— Farewell — and Hail!

PROLOGUE

All the whole wide world's a stage, as Mr. Shakespeare'd say,
And college life (and other life) is nothing but a play.
Our sayings and our writings, and everything we do,
Are a swift unfolding drama — an historical review.
Our thinkings and our actings, and everything we know,
We've recorded and entitled 1919's Passing Show.

And though reluctant we may face the years that intervene,
We may open up these pages and find acted, scene by scene,
The many joyous happenings, the pleasures and the strife,
The work and play of every day that was our college life —
Then with its former brightness our love of it will glow,
And we'll applaud forever 1919's Passing Show.

The curtain rises on a scene
Composed of freshmen (color green),
Who yet have sense enough to vote
For Gertie Geer to steer their boat.
Her shoulders broad they see can bear
Responsibilities and care,
And so they make her prima donna
And heap a lot of honor on 'er.

A Midnight Frolic (10:30 P. M.)

MYSTERIES

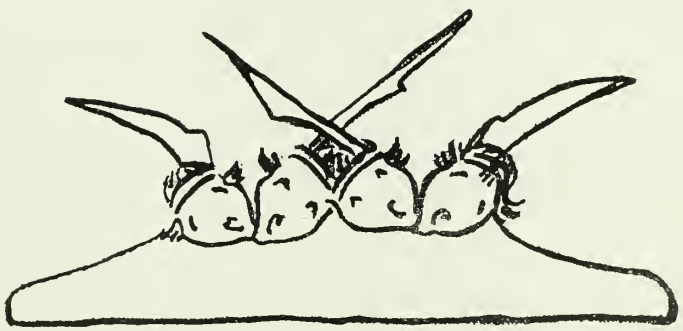
Supper with a cabaret,
Mystic dancing and a play,—
Who said Barnard isn't gay?

Enter Freshmen, scared and cowed,
Enter all the college crowd,
Threat'ning, awful, very proud.

They relent, tho', at our groans,
Which would melt the hardest stones,
— Exit Us with ice-cream cones!

Our Own Musical Show

(Fortunately a musical COMEDY.)



Scene: Sing Song
Characters: 1919 (and others)
Orchestra leader: G. Stanbrough

The singing swells,— superb, sublime, sonorous,
Its lofty strains might make the gods rejoice,
For Georgie leads a very perfect chorus,
And 1919's showing off her voice.
(At which exhibition, too,
19's making her début.)

The judges sit bewitched in spell-bound wonder,
The other classes slowly drop behind,
And yet, although we steal their older thunder,
We really cannot see why they should mind;
(Of course the prize, it is our capture,
Still, they have the list'ners' rapture.)

Greek Games

(A Classical Drama)

In costumes made of cheese-cloth,
With music, dance and verse,
We worshipped Lord Poseidon—
It might have been much worse.

You do not need these explanations
To understand that celebrations
Are really more than jubilations,
Especially when mixed with rations
(The Astor's very best creations),
When one has passed examinations,
And talks of nothing but vacations;
A day of joyful cachinations,
The curtain falls on exclamations.

After summer's intermission
(With the faculty's permission),
We resumed the second aet as sophomores.
Full of wise sophistication,
We looked on with great elation,
While Dotty undertook to pull the oars.

You cannot, may not, shall not haze!
This is a law oft heard.
But there are many little ways
To camouflage the word.

We scared each little freshman kid,
We acted as we'd please,
And got away with what we did,
Calling it "Mysteries."

Belasco was a broken man
Shubert was no longer in it,
When we Sophomores produced
Drama fashioned to the minute,
The Pow-Wow that we "Injuns" had,
Even we thought not half bad!

In skating time, this is our rink,
Fine Winter Garden—don't you think?

Nineteen daneed in halls gymnastie —
The Russian Ballet may be plastie,
But no more enthusiastie,
When they tripped the light fantastie.

Then Sing Song came around again.
But all our efforts were in vain.
We didn't fuss at being second,
For Seventeen as first was reekoned.

Greek Games

When you've worked for a show till you're indigo blue,
When you're sure that it's doomed to fall flat,
And the critics then give it a glowing review,
Oh, what can be finer than that!

We gave "Connie's Nightmare"—'twas awful to see,
And we hoped it would even be worse,
To show just the sort of "Weak Games" there would be
If the cast did not come to rehearse.

We print here the lyric, that posterity
May view the dread product of "Weak" energy.

TO EOS

Pretty little Eos,
Goddess fair and free,
Harken while I honor
Your whole big familee!
Adventures you had many Different ones each day
With mortal or immortal,
You should worry, eh?

Your children—they were frisky,
Conventions were their curse
But then, with you as mother
They might have been much worse.
But you! — I can't do justice
In poems poor, prosaic,
You need vers libre verses,
More oenomatopaic.

Your hand is grand,
Your hair is fair,
Your glance doth entrance,
Your feet are sweet,
And the corners of your languid mouth
Droop amorously South.

Since you are thus transcendental,
What language incidental,
Be it drastically dramatic,
Or frigidly phlegmatic,
Or consummately clever,
It never, never, never,
Could exhibit all your greatness,
Your beauty and sedateness,
Your wisdom, will, and wit —
So quite quickly I shall quit.

Adele Alfke. Toastmistress,

We came, we talked, we laughed, we dined,
Our dinner was the common kind,
The food was food, the jokes were jokes,
The talk was that of clever folks.
In song and speech we did recall
We needed no fine praise at all,
Of fame we have a mighty fund
Our glory is not moribund.

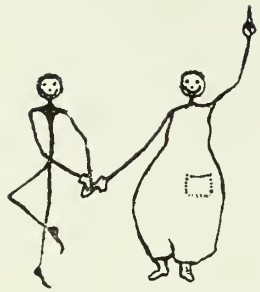
Junior Year at length is here,
Really, it is very queer.
Heatless days we've had galore
Wheatless days are still in store.
Answering to our country's call
We abolished Junior Ball,
Oh, we've had just one long maze
Of danceless, beauless, playless days!
Still there's one thing cheers each lass,
'Tis that peppy freshman class.
So we've managed to survive,
Yes, we're very much alive!

Cubist Poems

(AFTER GERTRUDE STEIN)



DOROTHY BROCKWAY and CONSTANCE LAMBERT

The world is right, the world always was right, the world will always be right.
Everybody's nice, everybody's clever, everybody's pretty and college is great.
Avoirdupois! Avoirdupois!

VERA KLOPMAN

Airy fairy and fairy airy
Graceful circles and curving motions
Hidden meanings in Art and Nature —
Dew drops on the morning glories and trumpet flowers with pallid eyes.
Little birds winging homeward and drooping lilies with limp bruised stamens. Ethereal motion, light light and airy airy.
Dance! Dance! Dance!
Fly! Fly! Fly!
You can't catch me! you can't catch me!

VIVIAN TAPPAN

Heavy-heavy-heavy-
Ultra highbrow and mighty cranium.
A book is a book is a book is a book.
Work work and study study, brilliant reason and mighty science.
Think think and mental gymnastics
Chlorides, Daily Themes, zoology, Beauty and Truth
Work! work! work!

PEGGY HEROD

A line is a line is a line —
I am a line, a long slim line, lines are beautiful, beautiful beautiful. I mix my belts with my bracelets at times, slim slim and skinny skinny, stringed beans and golden bananas.
Essence of Broadway and Fifth Avenue.
Proud proud and fair fair.
A line — is — a line — is — a line.

More Cubist Poems

Gertrude Geer

Tall tall and straight straight.
Swing swing, I walk so straight that at times I go backward, a foolish mistake, foolish foolish.

Conservatism, let us woo the shy maid Conservatism, lovely grey-eyed Conservatism with her black-topped boots, and cloaked shoulders, sitting by her own fireside.
Sweet sweet sweet but stubborn stubborn,

You're wrong and I'm right and we will NOT argue!
Sweet! Sweet! Sweet!

Bertha Mann

I am! I am! I am!
Hurrah for Barnard, hurrah for the new building, hurrah for Miss Latham, hurrah for '19, hurrah hurrah!
Enthusiasm, enthusiasm, beautiful pink enthusiasm with rosy borders.
Essence of Kaiserism faintly tinged with Democracy, a Democratic Kaiser,
An Absolute Democrat.
Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!
I am I am I am —

Adele Alfke

Ha ha ha ha ha!
Flighty, fatless and feminine, laughter, lyrics and lunch.
Long long, slim slim, and romantic oh so romantic!
Romance beautiful purple Romance, alternating between cave men and gold plumed knights with translucent eyes and trailing mustachios.
And Sarcasm, flaming anarchistical Sarcasm, its red tail spotted with green, its twitching tongue tipped with caustic wit.
Eyes
Eyes
Eyes
And far be it from me to talk about anyone BUT —

Stars at Home and Abroad

"What are you reading, my pretty maid?"
"The brilliant Barnard Bear," she said.

What are they looking at?
Nothing in view;
They posed in this manner,
They thought it was new.

Kind reader, lest you lift your brows in horror
At our frivolous, light-minded, giddy class,
We bid you gaze again in thoughtful rapture,
Here's poise and grace and dignity en masse.

Ready for the Convocation
Stand we, waiting for a chance
Just to get a peek at Joffre
And to shout loud, "Vive la France."

I have a hunch
This is a bunch
Eating lunch
Hear 'em crunch?

More Stars

Beside the waters of the Hudson
Our "Towney" stooped to get a drink,
And her head met a little school-
mate's—
She leaned too far across the brink!

I see on the campus before me,
Standing so primly there,
Tall Betty and laughing Estella,
And Beatrice with raven hair.

"London Bridge is falling down, My Fayre Ladye."

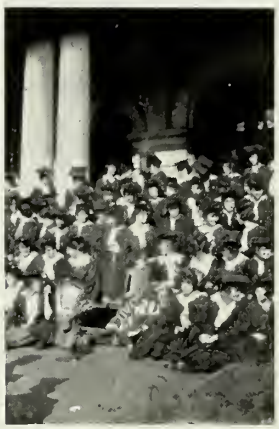
Would you think that girls could be
As sadly solemn as we three?



All a-squinting at the sun,
Caps tip-tilted, everyone.
'19 sits with bored look
While she has her picture took.
Lest this give a false impression,
Turn—and see her real expression.

Four little maids from Brooks are we,
Perched 'mongst the branches of this tree,
High in the world sit we rightfully,
Our marks are always A or B.

On our way To Heaven!

The program ends here as you know —
And "on to Heaven" goes Nineteen,
And only pictures of the east,
Remain in separate to be seen.
But just before we finish quite —
Some brief reviews we must advance
About our critics who for years
Have criticized us — now's our chance!

ADELE L. ALFKE

Great wits are oft to madness close allied
And thin partitions do their bounds divide.

RUTH AUGUSTA AMBERG

My patriotic zeal is fine,
My style of dressing mas-cu-line.

MARION ERWIN ANTHONY

Sweet and slow, sweet and slow.

MARY LEONE ARCHIBALD

I love to help the down and out
And tend the sick and lame,
In fact I'm really keen about
This Social Uplift game.

JEANNE ELISE BALLOT

I am Jeanne E. Ballot de Paris, de Paris,
I am called par les hommes, tres jolie, tres jolie,
I trip the light fantastic
In a manner quite gymnastic,
And I travel every morn to N. Y. C., N. Y. C.

HELEN BARANOFF

MARJORIE LIVINGSTON BARRINGTON

"She ne'er recalled from day to day
The silly things she learnt at school,
But liked to jump and run and play
Like any healthy an-i-mule.'"

CORINNE BARRY

Smiled pleasantly—and passed on.

MARION JOSEPHINE BENEDICT

Not by looks or by demeanor
Can you tell me from Verena.

MARGUERITE BERNARD

"The play's the thing."

DOROTHY CARROLL BIRDSEYE

Let us fly aloft
On the wings of thought—
Tweet! tweet!

GERTRUD MARIANNE BOAS

Willing she is, and eager to please,
What other virtues are better than these?

ALICE JOYCE BORDEN

"She that hath light within her own clear breast
May sit in the centre and enjoy bright day."

EDNA ROSE BRAND

"Frankness was her keynote."

DOROTHY BROCKWAY

"She smiled at all the world, and all the world smiled back."

ALINE S. BUCHMAN

"Lord, how wise you are!"

GERTRUDE BUNGER

One of the little crowd at Brooks
Who burn the midnight oil o'er books.

TERESA ADELAIDE CARBONARA

To disappear each day she's wont.
We'd like to know her, but we don't.

MARIE R. CARMODY

"Hang sorrow, care will kill a cat,
And therefore let's be merry!"

ELECIA FRYER CARR

"I am the Comic Spirit!"

ALMA BIRGE CHAMBERLAIN

"She nodded when she met you, now and then exchanged a word."

MARJORIE LOUISE CLARK

"And when she laughed she hit high C."

EDITH CONWAY

"Verily thy soft voice and retiring manner maketh professors to think that thy knowledge needs no airing."

CATHERINE IRENE COOKSEY

"A cheerful girl who babbles on."

MARY CRAIG

"Modesty's a quality that Womankind adorns."

LOLA MARION CRANDALL

"All her bearing gracious."

ELEANOR LUCILLE CURNOW

And oh, the breaks she makes
Would give your soul the quakes!

LEAH CURTISS

Leah comes and goes in manner quiet,
She thrives upon an Economic diet.

VERENA DEUEL

From the back of my head
No one can descry—
Whether I'm Bennie—
Or whether I'm I!

LUCY ALICE DEWEY

"She walks as if tomorrow would do for the next step."

VIOLA DIEHL

A glimpse of her 'bout once a year
Is how we know Viola's here.

ELSIE DOCHTERMANN

"A shy little girl
With a shy little way."

EMILY MAY DOWLING

"I do but sing because I must
And pipe but as the linnets sing."

HELEN DOYLE

One of us, but not often with us.

HELEN FOLEY

She was very mild and meek,
Rarely with us did she speak.

HELENE EVELYN FOX

"Clip and sprightly."

HELEN ELIZABETH FREDERICKSON

There's one thing perplexes us sorely,
To ask you's the only thing to do.
How under the sun can anyone eat twenty-five sandwiches a day—
And still look as stylish as you do?

ELIZABETH STUART GATEWOOD

"She, while her companions slept,
Was toiling upward in the night."

GERTRUDE MARSHALL GEER

"When the grown up ladies
—Act like babies—
We've got to love 'em, that's all."

ALICE GERALDINE GOEBELL

"Which we think must have been clever, for we couldn't understand it."

DOROTHY BELLE GOLDSMITH

"And she will talk, great Gods how she will talk!"

CHARLOTTE GREENE

I can speak on any topic
That is labelled "Philanthropic."

SELMA GROSS

"You write with ease to show your breeding,
But easy writing's curst hard reading."

BEATRICE CONSTANCE GUGGENHEIM

"A sweeter voice was never heard
In Springtime from the cuckoo bird."

LENORE KLEINERT GUINZBURG

"Our manner towards her's friendly and even rather gracious,
For no one slings
Such odes and things
As does our lauriger Horatius."

ERNA C. GUNTHER

"A monstrous little voice."

DOROTHY HALL

"Without Economics, you know, there wouldn't be any civilization."

LUCY JULIA HAYNER

"One of our short-haired sisterhood."

RUTH HENDERSON

"Seen but not heard."

ELIZABETH NOLA HEROD

I'm slow in getting ready,
And I'm sweet but rather shy—

MARGARET NOLA HEROD

—That on fine dress I lay much stress,
I can't and shan't deny!

GRETCHEN HERMANN

"I never grin and I never smile,
And I never larf nor play."

MARJORIE HERRMANN

"Even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

MAY HOFFMAN

"All things here are out of joint."

ESTELLE HUREWITZ

"A dear old lady in the guise of a baby."

ESTELLE JACOBS

A nice girl, but a math shark.

RUTH JARVIS

"Never broke a regulation, never told a lie,
Never want to have vacation, when I don't know why.
Always love to go to sections, love to go to bed,
Never nibble sweet confections when I am not fed."

EDITH FLORENCE JOHNSON

I do the things I ought to do
And speak when I am spoken to.

MILDRED KATHERINE KAMMERER

"Oh, to be wafted away
From this black aceldama of sorrow!
Where the earth of a dusty today
Is the dust of an earthy to-morrow."

GRACE MAYFRED KERR

"For all my curly hair I'm a radical deep-dyed."

VERA VIVA KLOPMAN

"An airy lady, witty and ingenious."

ELSA KOCH

On Fancy's wing I never roam,
In everything I'm practical;
My thoughts stray never far from home—
I'm most matter-of-factical!

SOPHIE KOERNER

"I am very well acquainted with matters mathematical,
I understand equations, both the simple and quadratical."

MYRA ESTHER KOHNSTAMM

My daily work I count as naught
I'd rather shine on tennis court.

LUCETTA KOSTER

"My life is one dem'd horrid grind."

MARGUERITE BERTHA KRANTZ

"Life is real, life is earnest."

AILEEN LAHIFF

"A willing heart and a helping hand."

CONSTANCE LAMBERT

"I never saw her cross or heard her scold."

LUCY CARTER LEE

"She amputates her 'r's
And she ranks with all the stars."

MARGERY LEVE

"That infantine fresh air of hers."

ROSE H. LE VINO

"If she will, she will, you may depend on it,
And if she won't, she won't, and there's an end on it."

RUTH LEWY

Her drawings really make us blink
She certainly can sling the ink.

ERNESTINE MIRIAM LIND

"I have six honest serving men
Who greet me everywhere,
Their names are how and which and when,
And what and why and where."

EDITH LOWENSTEIN

A lady of fashion with multiple airs,
And burdened with college and social affairs.

LAURA McDANIEL

"I'm sure I'll flunk," you hear her say,
But her final mark is always "A."

JEAN KNOX MacFARLANE

"The more I see of men the better I like horses."

KATHERINE MAGAW

K. Magaw hails from the West,
California she loves best.

PAULINE CLARA MATHILDA MAHNEKE

"For she by geometric scale
Could take the size of pots of ale;
And wisely tell the hour of day,
The clock doth strike by algebra."

BERTHA HALLE MANN

"You shall never take her without her answer unless you take her without her tongue."

RUTH MARSHALL

Your nature, my dear, argues much versatility,
For you're looking for fun while you've business ability.

RAMONA MARTIN

"A real funny gel."

VICTORINE KOPS MAYER

"World-wise, and most awfully grown up."

JANET DUNCAN MENEELY

"I cannot check my girlish blush,
My color comes and goes,
I redden to my finger tips
And sometimes to my nose."

GERTRUDE ALLAN MILLER

Who never took a single note,
But only nonsense poems wrote.

HELEN MARJORIE MILLER

"My kingdom for a cat!"

MARGUERITE EULALIE MONJO

Never alone I'm known to go—
Always I'm seen with Jeanne Ballot.

GRACE BEULAH MORGAN

"She was an excellent person in every way and won the respect of even Mrs. Grundy."

DOROTHY MORGENTHAU

She's writing a book full of sad, stern realities,
Called "Practical Dorothy's Impracticalities."

RUTH ALEXANDRA MORRISON

Ruth Morrison's, we beg to state,
The Latin teacher's pet;
Which means as sure as sure as Fate,
She'll wear Phi Beta yet.

MARIE MUHLFELD

"Life's a jest and all things show it,
I thought so once and now I know it."

GRACE CHARLOTTE MUNSTOCK

A regular cut-up—on the ice.

MLISS AILEEN PARTRIDGE

"She was a peach of the clinging variety."

EDNA CATHERINE NEUVILLE

"Hair such a wonder—floods of it, too."

LUCRETIA McCLURE FORMAN PETERS

".A nice blonde young person who pronounced her 'a's as in 'Father'."

MARGARET ARMITAGE OGDEN

"I have a little conscience that goes in and out with me."

DOROTHY LANGDON POTTER

A mighty good sport.

JOSEPHINE MASON POWELL

"Mistress of herself though China fall."

OTTILIE PUERSCHNER

"With the confident smile of work well done."

FRANCES REDER

"Now let me tell you—"

EDITH MARION REID

"Oh Boy!"

PHYLLIS HELEN REID

"We love its giggle-gurgle."

SARAH RAE ROSENBERG

Slow and Southern are her traits
Oft, too, she forgets her dates.

EDITH ROSENTHAL

"Work is for those not clever enough to avoid it."

BERENICE CHARLOTTE RUFF

"Fain would her yellow hair hang down her back."

FRANCES DANIEL RULE

"A free and frank young Yankee maiden."

HELEN SAUNDERS

Of ruffles I dream, and flounces and frocks,
And fancy new ways to twine my long locks.

GEORGIE SCHAAF

Very nice to talk to, for she never interrupted.

LUCILLE MARIE SENS

Time-taking questions are my forte,
I quibble over all I'm taught.

MERLE HUNTER SHUSTER

I'm always quite delighted
When the students cut up capers—
For it gives me opportunities
To write them for the papers.

EDNA REGINA SIEMS

"She liked whate'er she looked on."

BESSIE RUTH SIMONS

College is an awful bore—
I don't know what I come here for.

THEODORA BOOTH SKINNER

"The music fairly lost itself to listen to her feet."

HELEN LOUISE SLOCUM

"Too mild, too mild, I pray thee, swear."

BETTY ALLEN SMITH

"Like chiselled marble, coldly fair."

EUDORA ISABEL SMITH

"Morals of pure unexceptionability,
Manners well formed and of strictest gentility."

LEOLYN CLARK SMITH

"Now Leo is a flapper,
She is dainty, she is dapper."

MIRIAM LOUISE SMITH

"Her views on hydrostatics are perhaps a trifle queer,
She doesn't care for chemistry, but oh, she has an ear."

GEORGIA L. STANBROUGH

"Let George do it."

AUGUSTA EMILY HAZELTON STANTON

And oh, she had a baby stare!

BLANCHE MARIANNE STROOCK

"Compared to me a rope or string
Is really quite a husky thing."

ANNETTE SWEENEY

"Periphrastic methods spurning,
To my readers all discerning
I admit my show of learning
Is the fruit of steady cram."

VIVIAN TAPPAN

"I yearn for the truth, I am earnest,
I yearn to face facts without blinking,
Of all of my yearns quite the yearnest,
Is my yearn to be thorough in thinking."

ELINORE WRIGHT TAYLOR

Bangs for the belle of Toledo,
But not for a college girl sweet,
So I brush my hair off of my forehead,
And strive to look simple and neat .

PAMELA THOMAS

"Her voice was deliciously soft,
Southern and slurry."

GRETCHEN IRMA TOREK

"It's the hair, I do declare, it is the hair;
Philosophers have said,
It all depends upon the head,
But they're wrong, for I declare, it is the hair!"

LILLIAN ELEANOR TOUROFF

Romantic-minded, unpretentious,
Fond of day-dreams, conscientious.

MARIAN DILLER TOWNSEND

"And her disposition was sunny."

JULIA MARY PATRICIA TREACY

"And she was very sweet, though proud,
She said 'You mustn't shout so loud'."

THERESA TUSA

"One of our little group of serious thinkers."

EDNA VAN WART

"I am very very, happy for I know that I am good."

VERNA VEIT

"'Tis better to have bluffed and passed than never to have passed at all."

HELENE RUTH WALLACE

"Who speaks the modern languages, and plays bridge like an old hand."

MARION BOYD WARREN

"And if an artist painted her,
He'd paint her unaware,
With a halo round her hair."

ANNA PIZA WEIL

"I have no other than a woman's reason,
I think it so because I think it so."

ERICA WEARY

"Silence is wisdom, I am silent then."

GRACE REED WELZMILLER

After the war is over,
Things for Grace won't be slow-
For she writes to seven soldiers now,
Or more—for all we know.

HATTIE LOUISE WEGENER

"With ability but 'umble, far too 'umble."

MYRRHA A. WESENDONCK

"Rich in saving common sense."

RAY WESTON

"She walked right in and turned around and walked right out again."

HELEN MYRICK WHITE

"As proper a girl as one would meet on a summer's morning."

CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH WILLIAMS

"Her good nature vies with her height."

EDITH SCHEERER WILLMANN

Sweet tempered she, and free from care,
She also loves to crimp her hair.

JULIETTE WITTE

"Genteel in personage."

LUCILE WOLF

What a very difficult thing it must be
To shine both in school and society!

JESSY EMILIE YOUNG

Oh, never leave your work undone!
Lessons come first and then comes fun.
You'll succeed if this you follow—
The fun though, always comes—tomorrow.

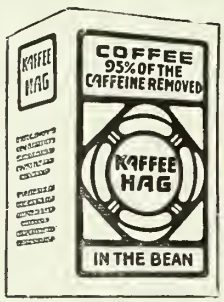
KAFFEE HAG

CAFFEINE-FREE COFFEE — NOT A SUBSTITUTE



"I didn't sleep well last night," is a common expression. If coffee disturbs your sleep, why don't you try Kaffee Hag? It looks like coffee, tastes like coffee, smells like coffee—it is coffee, coffee of the highest grade and unexcelled flavor, but without the sleep-disturbing drug caffeine.

Huyler's have received the following letter from Mr. Hoover

UNITED STATES FOOD ADMINISTRATION
WASHINGTON, D.C.

November 19, 1917

My dear Mr. Huyler:

I would indeed be glad if you would undertake systematic work in the substitution of corn syrup, molasses, maple, honey and other sweets in candy manufacture, and if you would give preference to chocolate and other materials in confectionery which require less cane and beet sugar.

We do not wish to deprive the public of their sweet meats but we of course must reduce the consumption of cane and beet sugar.

Very truly yours,

Herbert C. Hoover

In response to this suggestion from Mr. Hoover HUYLER'S are now featuring HUYLER'S War Candies, in 1 lb. and 2 lb. boxes, at $1.00 a pound. All the candies and chocolates are of our regular manufacture, but selected for this package because they are made from materials of natural sweetness, or are flavored with syrup, molasses, honey or maple.

The value is in the candy. The box is incidental. The sugar saving is substantial.

WE sell Kelly-Springfield Tires, with a guarantee of 6,000 miles. This doesn't mean that you'll get only that much mileage; it means that you won't get any less, and that in all probability you will get very much more.

We will make all tire repairs free of charge, and any tires that have not given full service, will be replaced pro-rata the list price on a 6,000-mile basis. In other words, if your Kelly-Springfield tire has run only 3,000 miles, and cannot be repaired without charge, we will replace it with a new tire at half the list price. Let us put one Kelly on your car; you'll come in and buy the other three of your own accord.

CLEANERS-DYERS

Too Good to Pass By

The egg-beater is performing stunts nowadays that were never even dreamed of a short time ago—not with eggs or cream, but with Jell-O.

With an egg-beater and a package of Jell-O the college girl is equipped to make something new—any one of fifty good things to eat that will be enjoyed as a welcome change from the monotony of fudge and kindred fixings.

Plain Jell-O dishes are fine, as everybody knows, but the whipped forms, as easy as the other, are even finer.

To Whip Jell-O

Dissolve a package of Jell-O in a pint of boiling water and let it cool. Begin to whip the jelly while it is still liquid—cold but not yet congealing—and whip until it is of the consistency of thick whipped cream. Use a Dover egg-beater and keep the Jell-O cold while whipping by setting the dish in cracked ice, ice water or very cold water. A tin or aluminum quart measure is an ideal utensil for the purpose. Its depth prevents spattering, and tin and aluminum admit quickly the chill of the ice or cold water.

Add cream or whatever else goes into the dessert, if anything does, after—not before—whipping the Jell-O.

The whipping process more than doubles the quantity of plain Jell-O, so that when whipped one package of Jell-O serves twelve persons instead of six.

There are six pure fruit flavors of Jell-O: Strawberry, Raspberry, Lemon, Orange, Cherry, Chocolate. Each 10 cents at any grocer's.

Take time, please, to send us your name and address, so we can send you a new Jell-O Book that will tell you how to make delicious things that are too good to miss.
